

ABSTRACTION

Boarding house information that is currently not provide satisfactory information prospective tenants. Many prospective tenants who have to come alone to the location because of the incompleteness of the information provided. For tenants who come from outside the Pangkalpinang would be very difficult to find a boarding house. The difficulties caused by not knowing the area and limited time and expense. In this final project will be made Application search and booking kost in Pangkalpinang Using Based Information Systems Website. This application will display the boarding places are rented along with the price, the location, the boarding facilities and boarding map information scattered in Pangkalpinang. Renters can search for information by address so that prospective tenants who come from outside the city can find information Pangkalpinang boarding places according to their needs and stay came to the location upon arrival in Pangkalpinang. The owner of the boarding house also can advertise kostnya place by following the given requirements.

Key Word : searching, rent house, application, GIS