

ABSTRACT

Application Mobile by exploiting service SMS ( Short Message Service) representing a service technology to the forwarding of message briefly. This facility a lot of used everyday activity, because of SMS ( Short Message Service) cheap, practical and there are at all of type and also type ponsel growth of Information and very fast communications technology perhaps a lot of exploited and used at all of work sector. One of among other things at institute of is straightening of law is Public attorney claimed to give the information which quickly, precise, transparent and cheap to common/ public society. application of case Handling base on the web and sms gateway is process enter the data presenting information of case handling of Public attorney which can be accessed via ponsel, with the format SMS which have been determined, some concept of service type that is : conference schedule, growth of case handling, attorney handling case, information of defendant identity, polling SMS, decision of a case, denouncing information and also service of suggestion and input to the make-up of information service in area punish

Way of job enough only deliver the SMS ( like delivering ordinary SMS) to this information service with the format SMS which have been determined, hence automatically of direct direspon by system. Result from this service concept, society can access the area information punish specially case handling of Public attorney when and just where, without having to come direct to office, warnet and or access the internet of through/ passing media of sophisticated communication means and computer.